BEGA Launches New Outside Employment Course

The Board of Ethics and Government Accountability (BEGA) has launched a new course in its Learning Management System (LMS). The new course, BGA929-a92en Outside Employment, provides a guide for employees, helping them avoid violating the ethics rules in their work, especially those related to engaging in outside employment. Additionally, it is designed to help agency heads and ethics counselors provide guidance regarding outside employment.

The course was published to BEGA's LMS site (<https://bega-console.lrn.com>) and is available to all employees who may already have outside employment or who are contemplating outside employment. If you would like more information regarding this or other courses available through the LMS, please email bega.training@dc.gov.
